

Analyst to MW Strategy

About MW Strategy

MW Strategy is a Nordic management consulting firm, founded in 2023, with the aim of complementing MW Group's vision of contributing to a stronger and more robust society. MW Strategy brings unique expertise in alternative financing for critical infrastructure and intends to play an important role in meeting the rapidly increasing infrastructure needs across three key sectors: Transportation & Logistics, Energy & Renewables, and Defence (including harbours, railways, highways and more).

MW Strategy offers advisory services related to Alternative Financing (also known as Public-Private Partnership, PPP) to senior decision-makers within critical infrastructure. Our team of professionals collaborate closely with clients to understand their unique challenges and objectives, supporting Nordic businesses, municipalities, and government agencies navigate an increasingly complex geopolitical landscape to achieve tangible, long-term results. We provide expertise ranging from strategic advisory to business transformation implementation.

MW Strategy is an independent company within MW Group, a leading Nordic industrial group that delivers critical capabilities to bolster Northern Europe's resilience, defence, and society. MW Group has 500 employees across the Nordics and is headquartered in Solna, Stockholm. As part of MW Group, MW Strategy is positioned for significant growth and offers exciting opportunities for development and impact.

The Position

As an Analyst at MW Strategy, you will have the opportunity to help shape our business and contribute to exciting infrastructure projects across Sweden and the Nordics, with Stockholm as your base. You will work alongside our team to support the transition towards a more sustainable and resilient society.

In this role, you will leverage your strong analytical skills to provide strategic guidance and develop recommendations for both private and public sector clients on strategic infrastructure-related topics. You will collaborate closely with client teams to ensure the effective implementation of these recommendations, all while growing within the framework of a proven management consulting structure.

The role is based in Stockholm.
